College Will Have Mothers Day, April 30

Mothers of College Students Are to Visit the Campus in Near Future. Special Program is Planned.

The mother of every S. T. C. student has been invited to attend the annual Mother's Day activities at the college, Wednesday, April 30. The invitations were mailed out from the office of President Lamkin last week, and plans are under way for the greatest Mother's Day in the history of the school.

After the mothers have registered on the morning of April 30, they will go to the auditorium at ten o'clock where they will hear an address by Dr. Jensen of the sociology department of the University of Missouri. At noon a banquet will be held at Residence Hall for the mothers and their sons and daughters. Overflow banquets will be held in the churches of the town.

In the afternoon, entertainment will be furnished in the form of a play by the Dramatics Club and music by students of the College Conservatory of Music.

The evening entertainment, beginning at 8:00, will consist of a program by the famous Augustana Choir of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. At this program the mothers will again be the guests of the college. The choir is a musical organization of college students directed by Dr. Carl R. Youngdahl.

Mr. Mehls of the social science department has charge of plans for the Mothers' Day activities. He has also appointed the following faculty committee to aid in arrangements: registration and entertainment for the afternoon, Miss Schulze and Miss Jack; reception committee, Miss Winfrey and Dr. Seikel; noon banquet, Miss Anthony; decorations, Miss Fischer. Mr. Mehls will have charge of the invitations and banquet speakers.

The members of the student committee are as follows: Student council, Violet Hunter; Y. W. C. A., Dorothy Winger; Sigma Tau Gamma, George Adams; Residence Hall, Isabel McDaniels; Alpha Sigma Alpha, Evelyn Evans; Sigma Sigma Sigma, Estelle Campbell; Y. M. C. A., Allen Doak and Walter Allen.

Following is the invitation sent by President Lamkin to the "Mothers of S. T. C.":

"To the Mothers of our Students: "We are celebrating Mothers' Day on Wednesday, April 30. On behalf of the faculty and students of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College I extend to you a cordial invitation to be our guest on that day. We are having our Mothers' Day activities early so that it will be possible for the mothers to spend the National Mothers' Day at home.

"It is our hope that your visit to your college will be of mutual benefit to you, to the students, and to the faculty. We feel that we need to give every emphasis to maintaining close relations between young people and their parents during the college years. The faculty too is desirous of coming in contact with the parents of our students. We hope that your visit will bring you a great pleasure and will be a joyous occasion for mothers, students, and faculty.

"We extend to you a hearty welcome and hope that you will be able to spend the day with us. We want you to become better acquainted with your college and the faculty into whose care you have entrusted your boy and girl for intellectual and moral guidance during their college days."

Kermit Rickman, who this year has been principal at Watson, has recently been promoted to the superintendency for next year. Mr. Rickman is a graduate of the college.

S. T. C. Graduate Is Placed by Bureau

Lawrence Shaffner, who received his degree at the close of the winter quarter, and who was a major in the department of commerce and business administration, now has a position with the Universal Credit Company of Kansas City.

Lawrence was placed by the newly established placement bureau of the college. This company is a Ford acceptance company, whose purpose is to finance car deals. It operates in Kansas, Arkansas and Missouri. Lawrence has a position in the insurance department.

Rural School Chorus Sings in Auditorium

More than four hundred children from forty Nodaway County rural schools sang Saturday afternoon, April 5 in the college auditorium. This group made up what is intended to be the first annual Nodaway County Chorus, singing under the direction of Grace Gallatin, senior student in the College Conservatory of Music.

Twenty-five members, including solos and songs by the mixed chorus, by the boys, and by the girls, made up the afternoon's program. Following the concert, Mr. G. E. Tunstall, president of the Maryville Chamber of Commerce gave a short talk. Souvenirs were given by the Chamber of Commerce to each boy and girl present.

The chorus was made possible through the efforts of Mr. Leslie G. Somerville and the co-operation of the rural schools and the college.

Students Win Prizes For Peace Speeches

The World Peace Gold Medal Declaration contest for the Maryville elementary grades and junior high school was held Sunday evening, March 16, in the Christian Church. Phyllis Cannon won the Gold Medal in the elementary section and Norvell Smith won in the junior high school group.

Clara Lippman, student president of the junior high school, acted as chairman.

Before the contest, musical numbers were furnished by the sixth grade B class chorus and a violin solo by Irene Heideman. A piano solo was given by William Somerville during the intermission between the two groups. After the contest, Robert Curfman gave a violin solo and Marjorie Fisher played a piano solo.

The judges for the contest were Mrs. M. E. Ford, Miss Blanche Dow, head of the Foreign Language Department of the college, and O. Myking Mehls of the Social Science Department of the college. Miss Frances Holliday had general supervision of the gold medal contest as well as the ten silver medals contest, which were held in the Maryville Public Schools on March 6.

Gold medal contests will be held in the near future at Burlington Junction, Savannah, Amazonia, King City, and Albany. The winners of the gold medals will compete in a diamond medal contest in April or May. Leslie G. Somerville, County Superintendent of Nodaway County has charge of the contests in the rural schools of the county.

O. Myking Mehls of the college has general supervision over all the contests in this section of Missouri.

College High School Will Graduate 25

Twenty-five students will graduate from the College High School when the annual high school commencement exercises are held in the college auditorium, May 21. Five of the graduates are boys and twenty are girls.

The list of graduates is announced with the provision that the students will graduate provided they maintain their present standard of scholarship:

Helen Winell, Mary Elizabeth Myers, Faye Swaney, Opal Cooper, Wilma Lewis, Beatrice Cox, Richard Barrett, Helen Birkenholz, Helen Richley, Daisy Richey, Flora Jennings, Minnie Bello Mazingo, Ermina Scott, Earl Blauvelt, Gertrude Howard, Lucile Leeson, Raymond Rickman, Francis Rowen, Rebecca Shell, Iola Hull, Margaret Komer, Lucille Schenkel, Virginia Elaine Bolin, Clara McGuinness, and Leland Patton.

The class play, "The Charn School," is to be presented in the college auditorium, May 9.

Instructor Writes Article

O. Myking Mehls of the Social Science Department has an article on "The Teacher and Social Problems" in the April number of the "Cooperative School Bulletin" which is published in Indiana.

In this article Mr. Mehls emphasizes the importance of acquainting our students with the social problems of the present time and gives suggestions as to how teachers can best interest students in these questions.

Clyde Rowland, B. S. '28, superintendent of schools at Guilford, was at the college Saturday, April 12.

College Choir of Sioux Falls Will Come Soon

Students and Others Will Have Opportunity to Hear a Choir Which Has Sung Before Great Throats.

The nationally famous Augustana College Choir of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, acclaimed by critics as one of the best in the nation, will appear in concert at the College Auditorium on the evening of April 30. This group consists of fifty youthful singers, all wonderfully trained by their renowned director and founder, Dr. Carl R. Youngdahl. They will appear here on their annual concert tour which this year includes cities in South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, and Iowa. Last year they appeared in the larger cities of the East where their reception by critics and music lovers was most enthusiastic. The program which they sing consists of classical sacred music by the world's most noted composers including Bach, Palestrina, Grieg, Burleigh, Christiansen, and Andrews. The director, Dr. Youngdahl, has two compositions of his own on the program.

In the first concert of the season given by the choir on April 3, the audience and the press made the comment that "the choir surpassed itself in voice, in technique, and appearance." Dr. Youngdahl states that the choir of this year will be one of the best which he has ever directed in his ten years of work at Augustana.

With this concert season the Augustana College Choir of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, will bring to a close its first decade of existence; but into this brief span of time the organization has written a history of remarkable achievements.

Through ten short years the choir has risen by the co-operation of its loyal members and the genius of its director and founder, Dr. Carl R. Youngdahl, to a position among the outstanding exponents of classical sacred music. In this limited time Dr. Youngdahl has produced a choral organization which has appeared in the leading cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, winning the enthusiastic acclaim of the best critics.

The Augustana College Choir sings without accompaniment and from memory. There is none of the formality of getting the pitch.

The membership of the group is composed of youthful, student voices. Authorities have been unreserved in their praise of the freshness of the blended voices, the beauty of the tone and the spiritual feeling expressed by these young chorists. Music lovers everywhere are enthusiastic when they hear this wonderful group.

The choir so pleased the National Federation of Music Clubs assembled in convention at Chicago in 1927 that it was invited to appear again before the convention at Boston in June, 1929. The ovation given the choir at Boston in 1929 was even greater than the reception given at Chicago in 1927.

Social Science Club Elects New Officers

Social Science Club officers for the spring quarter were elected at a meeting of that organization held Wednesday afternoon, March 26. The officers elected are: President, Grace Morris; vice-president, Mildred Wiles; secretary, Ada Fair Sutton; treasurer, Viola Brandt.

A program committee is to be appointed by Miss Morris, at a later date to arrange for programs for meetings during the spring term. Doyle Smith, a senior, is the retiring president of the Social Science Club.

College High Cubs Are Given Letters

Nine members of the College High School basketball team were awarded letters at a special assembly of the high school held in the auditorium, Tuesday, April 8, at 9:30 a. m. The College High team went through a season of some twenty-four games not including tournament contests and won more than half their engagements. This is perhaps the best record made during the few years that the College High has had a team.

The team placed second in the sub-district tournament in March, losing to Savannah in the finals, after having defeated the strong Pickering team in their semi-finals game. The trophy won in this tournament will probably be placed in the College trophy case at the gymnasium.

Talks were given at the special assembly by Mr. Dieterich, principal of the high school, and by Howard Iba and Vance Geiger, coaches of the team. The purple sweaters to which the white M's were attached were paid for by the members of the team.

Those who received letters were: Richard Barrett, forward, captain, two-year man; Robert Lawrence, center, two-year man; a junior; George Belt, guard, one-year man, sophomore; LeRoy Morrow, guard, one-year man, a senior; Ora Smith, forward, one-year man; a junior; Everett O'Day, center, junior; Ralph Houston, forward, three-year man, a junior; Durward "Spec" Dougan, forward, one-year man, sophomore.

Mr. A. J. Cauffield, head of the Geography Department of the College was Once an Ohio Farm Boy.

Continuation of geographical and geological research in various parts of the United States and further study in some big university are the chief aspirations of A. J. Cauffield, head of the geography department at the State Teachers College.

Although Mr. Cauffield already has degrees from two big universities and has engaged in field trips taking him into many states he views education as an endless accumulation of new facts.

Mr. Cauffield's grandfather was a weaver at Londonderry, Ireland. The shuttle which the Irish weaver used is now in the grandson's possession as a prized relic. Mr. Cauffield has been able to trace his descent back to the

Newspaper Man from Argentina Gives Address

Aided by an Interpreter, Senor Gollan Interests Hearers with Talk on Education in Argentina.

Probably the first man ever to give an address in Maryville in a foreign language, spoke before a special assembly of the college students Monday, April 7, at 10:00 a. m. in the college auditorium. This man was Jose Santos Gollan, Jr., member of the editorial staff of La Prensa, a large daily paper in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Senor Gollan is an exchange professor of the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri.

The lecture was delivered in sections, at the end of each of which, Senor Gollan's words were translated into English by Raphael Weiner, student of the University of Missouri School of Journalism. Following Senor Gollan's talk, the assembly was dismissed.

Preceding the lecture, President Lamkin read the names of those students who made all E grades or who had E in three of their winter quarter courses. The all E students included Avis Glenn, Berdie Lemaster, and Ida Beth Newlon.

Donald Johnson, who was taking only 7 1/2 hours of work, made three E's. Ernest Stalling made four E's. Lois Ropre made four E's and one S in 12 1/2 hours of work. The following made E's in all but one of their courses: Imogene Woolf, Louise Cox, Crystal Holbrook, Georgia Moorshead, Mildred Sandison, Marvin Shamberger, Burl Zimmerman, Verna Houghton, Norval Saylor, and Lorine Stucki.

Sweaters were awarded to the following: Howard Iba, captain, four year man; Riley Davidson, senior, two year man; Robert Dowell, two stripes; H. Fischer, two stripes; Wilbur Staleup, two stripes; Clarence Iba, two stripes; Ted Hodgkinson, one year; Marle Taylor, one year; Charles Finley, one year; Elmo Wright, one year; Jack McCracken, one year; and Ryland Milner, one year.

In his lecture, following the distribution of the sweaters, Senor Gollan, told something of the educational status of the Argentine, and of the efforts of Eustasio Sarmiento, an early president of the republic to introduce the educational ideals of the United States into his own country.

Principal emphasis, the speaker said, has been placed upon primary education in Argentina. Eighty-two percent of the primary teachers are women. Normal schools in Argentina, Senor Gollan explained, have the same purpose as teachers' colleges in the United States. All of these normal schools are under government control. Illiteracy has been decreased considerably since the instituting of a definite educational policy by Sarmiento some seventy years ago, the journalist declared.

In conclusion, the speaker pointed out that Argentina has an army of only 27,000 men for national defense, while its army of teachers consists of 55,000 men and women. The speaker paid a high tribute to the teaching profession, $84,000,000, or approximately $7.00 per inhabitant is spent on education. Seventy percent of this goes to primary education, he said, twenty percent to high schools, and the remainder to universities.

Sophomores Elect Council Members

Erman Barrett and Dan Blood were elected sophomore members on the student council at a meeting of the sophomores held April 3. Erman was returned to the council after having served for two quarters, by winning over his opponent Clara Mae Shartzor. Dan Blood was opposed by Lewis Wallace.

College Instructors Visit Springfield

Eleven members of the college faculty attended a meeting of the faculties of the five state teachers colleges held at Springfield during the week-end. Friday night a reception was given for the visiting instructors. Saturday, talks were given by several instructors of the University of Missouri concerning the new educational bill.

Departmental meetings were held at 11:00 Saturday morning. In the afternoon the educators were taken on a tour of the city and of the college campus. In the evening a banquet was held at the Ontra Ball Room.

Instructors from the college who attended the meetings were Dr. Foster, Dr. Hake, Mr. Garrett, Mr. Wilson, Dr. Dildine, Dr. Seikel, Mr. Salvesen, Miss Anthony, Miss Dykes, Miss Bowman and Miss Brumbaugh. The trip was made in the college bus driven by Joe Trullinger.

Practice Teachers Present Program

Teachers in the College High School presented the program at the regular College High School assembly given Friday morning, April 11, in Social Hall at 11:00 a. m.

The program started with a vocal solo by Mrs. O. L. Curl. The next number was a farcical pantomime, "Columbus Discovers America." The cast of characters for the farce was: Columbus, Earl Duse; Isabella, Violetta Hunter; Ferdinand, Clarence Worley; crew, Merlin Groom, Doyle Smith; Indians, Harold Houston, Floyd Houghton; pirate, Betty Seelman; orchestra, Georgia Ellen Trusty, Alberta Kunkel, and Frances Paulette; curtains, Nettie Price and Margaret Conner.

Following the play, Lucile Doughty played a piano solo. A dance, Highland Fling, by Cleola Dawson completed the program. The committee which arranged the program was composed of Betty Seelman, Grace Morris, and Clarence Worley.

May Fete Will Be Better Than Ever

The May Fete for 1930, for which preparations are now being made, is expected to be the most elaborate thing of its kind in the history of the school. There will be even more people, finer costumes, and a more expensive property set than those of last year's May Fete, which drew a record crowd.

This year's program will be given twice as was last year's. The first presentation will be on the evening of Friday, May 16, and the second will be in the afternoon of Saturday, May 17.

"The Wizard of Toyland" is the name of the pageant to be presented. A number of kindergarten children have a birthday party, they find everything very much over-size. The sleeping Wizard awakes and brings forth toys of all kinds.

From the pages of a large nursery rhyme book, nine feet long and seven feet wide, come dolls, teddy bears, one hundred sticks of sugar candy, aeroplanes, balloons, jumping jacks, Mother Goose characters, wooden soldiers, and rag dolls.

Among the nursery rhymes to be presented are Mistress Mary, Quilt Contrary (Marzella Houghton); Jack and Jill (Esther McMurry and Marjorie Bruce); Little Miss Muffet (Eunice Cox); Mary and her lamb (with Juanita Marsh as Mary); Curly Locks (Clotha Sutterlin); Little Bo-Peep (Mary Lou Appleman); the Queen and Jack of Hearts (Nellie Russell and Cleola Dawson).

Features of the program will be an aeroplane dance with Marjorie Bruce as the lead, and a balloon dance with Hermine Baur as the lead. Beverly Blagg, pupil in the training school kindergarten, will play the lead in the whole pageant. She will represent one of the little girls at the birthday party. Mildred Christie will give a too dance on the head of a toy drum. Maurice Woodburn will play the part of the wizard, and Marion "Gus" Williams will represent Old King Cole.

Since it should be of great interest to school children and teachers of children it is expected that more than two thousand people from all parts of northwest Missouri are expected to view the spectacle which will probably be held on the campus near the gymnasium. Admission will be fifty cents.

Bearcats Win First Dual Meet Meet of Season

Track and Field Men from Penn College, Oskaloosa, Iowa, are Defeated on Local Field, Friday, April 11.

The Bearcat track team made its home debut last Thursday by successfully turning back the opponents from Penn College of Oskaloosa, Iowa, 73 1/2 to 53 1/2. This meet was the third victory in as many meets for Maryville this season.

Nine firsts and eight seconds accounted for the winning points. Most track and running events were nearly even for both colleges, but Maryville, in the field and weight events, excelled, and thereby took the margin for victory. Penn had several small men who were excellent runners and had little difficulty in winning their events. Weed of Penn, running the mile, left his competition far in the background, while Hiatt held the field in the quarter. Hay also did especially well, scoring in four events.

The feature event of the day were the javelin throw of 195 feet, 8 inches by Marion Search, a 6 foot high jump by Burns, and an 11 foot 8 inch pole vault by Borehars, all of the Maryville squad. Search's heave is the best ever seen on the local field, and ranks with the best throws ever made in the state.

The half mile relay substituted for the 220 yard dash, was won by the visitors. The mile relay, which was the feature event and the close of the meet, was won handily by the Maryville team composed of Culp, Bruce, Mitzel and Nickerson.

All events were retarded by an adverse side wind accompanied by great dust clouds. The high hurdles blew over so fast that it was necessary to place men by each group of hurdles to hold them during preparations for the race. Nine men made up the Penn College team.

Summary

100-yard dash: Won by C. Smith, Maryville; Duse, Maryville, second; Hiatt, Penn, third. Time—10.2 seconds. Mile run: Won by Weed, Penn; Mitzel, Maryville, second; Jessup, Penn, third. Time—4:52.4. 440-yard dash: Won by Hiatt, Penn; Covey, Penn, second; Culp, Maryville, third. Time—54.6 seconds.

120-yard high hurdles: Won by Hay, Penn; C. Smith, Maryville, second; Keever, Maryville, third. Time—16.4 seconds.

Shot put: Won by Seeley, Maryville; Search, Maryville, second; Six, Penn, third. Distance—39 feet, 1 1/4 inches.

880-yard run: Won by King, Maryville; Kollong, Penn, second; Bruce, Maryville, third. Time—2:11.6.

Pole vault: won by Borehars, Maryville, and Rogers, Penn, tied for first; C. Iba, Maryville, third. Height 11 feet 8 inches.

220-yard low hurdles: Won by Hay, Penn; Covey, Penn, second; Duse, Maryville, third. Time—27.6 seconds.

Discus throw: Won by Bricken, Maryville; Seeley, Maryville, second; Six, Penn, third. Distance—108 feet 4 in.

110 yard jump: Won by Burns, Maryville; Hay, Penn, second; Fischer, Maryville, and Rogers, Penn, tied for third. Height—5 feet 11 inches.

Javelin throw: Won by Search, Maryville; J. Smith, Maryville, second; Six, Penn, third. Distance—195 feet 8 inches.

Half mile relay: Won by Penn College (Hay, Rogers, Covey and Hiatt); Maryville, (Duse, Culp, Borehars, and C. Smith) second. Time—1:36.4.

Two mile run: Won by Weed, Penn; King, Maryville, second; Jessup, Penn third. Time—10:53.8.

Broad jump: Won by Staleup, Maryville; Duse, Maryville, second; Covey, Penn, third. Distance—20 feet 1 1/2 in. Mile relay: Won by Maryville (Culp, Bruce, Mitzel and Nickerson); Penn College, (Hiatt, Kollong, Rogers and Weed) second. Time—3:41.7.

COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this college, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will respect and obey the College laws and do our best to instill a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

VISITORS COMING

To those who have the interest of S. T. C. at heart, the coming of one thousand to fifteen hundred high school students to the College next week to take part in the spring contests is an event of momentous importance to the College.

This one trip to the College on the part of the high school student will in all probability win his respect for the College or arouse his disgust for it.

The College students have largely in their power the control of the situation. College students should see to it that they not only behave themselves properly when the visitors are present but that others from the city of Maryville or elsewhere who are in attendance also behave properly.

We can advertise our College until the break of dawn but one wrong impression placed on the mind of a visiting student or in the mind of his or her parent cannot soon be erased, and can but mar the beauty of this our Alma Mater. This is of should be of utmost importance to us, her sons and daughters.—S. G. L.

Memory has such a tendency to exaggerate beauty, such a way of making rose and old gold out of greys and tans that many times a repetition of the remembered experience is a disappointment, failing, as it so often does, to measure up to the memory.

Because of this habit of mind you probably went to the coliseum Thursday night hoping that the Augustana college capella choir would be half as good as you remembered it to be in the past, but fearing that it could not in reality reach the standard set by memory. But what a glorious surprise awaited you! The choir surpassed itself in voice, in technique, in appearance, and asked no one to "make allowances" because it is made up of college students. In fact there is such a professional, trained air about the whole organization that, if one did not know better, one might be tempted to wonder what salary they get and how many hours they work!

To open a program of sacred choir music with Bach is almost a tradition, for the compositions of that old master lend themselves perfectly to a capella singing, "Jesu, Priceless Treasure," a motet for five voices has been done before by the Augustana group but never with the finish which characterized it Thursday night. Palestrina, another composer skilled in the art of contrapuntal writing, contributed his famous "Gloria Patri" to the program and if it did not take high honors for the evening it came very close to it. So perfectly did the two choirs (on the stage and behind the scenes) blend that one had difficulty in knowing where one left off singing and the other began.

Students Enjoy the April Fools Party

The student council turned the College clocks back three days and made the all-school party for the spring quarter an April Fool party, even though it was held Friday, April 4. Balloons, noise-makers, dance caps, and serpentine made the party a gala affair. Special stunt dances were arranged. The punch proved to be very attractively colored ice water. Those who took part in the grand march were met with a green and white "April Fool" sign which harmonized well with the green and white decorations in the library.

In the receiving line were Violetto Hunter, Clarence Worley, and Mr. and Mrs. Kinnaird, all of whom greeted the guests with such appropriate remarks as "Merry Christmas," "Happy New Year," and "Birthdays Greetings." Miss Winfrey, Dr. and Mrs. Lake, and Mr. Wilson were other faculty members at the party. Ted Brecklove's orchestra furnished the music.

California Man Tells Students of Pacific Island

Mr. C. Rowell, Journalist and Lecturer, Discusses Social and Racial Conditions in the Hawaiian Islands.

"Hawaii—the Laboratory of the Races" was the subject of the address by Mr. Chester Rowell, journalist and lecturer of Fresno, California, at an assembly held Tuesday morning, April 15, in the auditorium. Mr. Rowell was for twenty years editor of the Fresno Republican, and is now a regent of the University of California, and a member of the Foreign Policy Committee of the United States.

The assembly program was opened with devotional exercises conducted by President Lamkin who presided over the assembly. Among the announcements were those concerning Mothers' Day, April 30; the meetings of the dramatics club for the remainder of the quarter; the three-act play, "The Doll's House," to be presented by dramatics club, Tuesday, April 22; and a meeting of the 1927 graduating class of Maryville High School held immediately after the Tuesday assembly. Following Mr. Rowell's speech the assembly adjourned.

"The Hawaiian Islands," said the speaker, in his introductory remarks, "are across an ocean and a continent from Europe and then just around the corner in the second ocean—a good four and one-half days' journey from our Pacific coast."

"This group of islands," Mr. Rowell continued, "are inhabited by the Polynesians, the most interesting and the least useful people on earth." Following the Christianization by America's New England missionaries, many of them died from the effects of civilization.

With the development of Hawaiian plantations there developed a need for labor. Contract labor was brought in, but did not prove satisfactory as the journalist pointed out. Coolie labor was next tried, he said. These human mules, as the speaker called them, were not satisfactory economically and socially, but in the schools their children bade fair to surpass all the others. Chinese laborers were eventually excluded.

The increased demand for sugar brought an increased demand for labor, Mr. Rowell went on to say, and Japanese peasants were brought in. Attempts were made to get as much work from the first generation workers as possible and then send them back to Japan before a second generation could grow up in the islands.

The speaker next discussed the various races in the islands. "Hawaii is American," he said, "in everything but people." There are Japanese, Koreans, natives, and Portuguese. The experiment of intermarriage among the races is going on in the islands, the lecturer pointed out, as well as the experiment of obtaining labor that is suitable, economically, socially, and biologically.

"The third experiment that is being carried on in this laboratory, the Hawaiian Islands, is a political one," said Mr. Rowell. The white people, mostly Americans, are at present in control, he said, and while the brown people there are willing to be controlled, the people of the yellow race there are not satisfied with the inferior jobs, but are able to hold and want to hold leading positions. The speaker said that just at the present time there was no questioning of America's control in the islands.

In concluding his address, the Californian stated that the peoples of Hawaii are rapidly becoming the people of Hawaii, and that the experiments now going on in these islands will one day be the problems of America and other nations of the world.

and plowed with oxen. When he was fifteen years old he entered high school, at the age of 17 he began his teaching career. The student of 1930 might seriously object to walking to school four miles every day, but that is what the Ohio farm boy had to do in order to attain an early education.

Mr. Cauffield had his eye on the teaching profession and by 1910 had completed his teacher-training at Ypsilanti, Mich. The college instructor spent seven years as a township superintendent in Ohio and for five years of the seven he also had charge of the village high school at Hubbard, Ohio. Some time was spent in supervising high school graduates in teaching. Later Mr. Cauffield had charge of English and bookkeeping instruction at a Commercial College in Ohio, and for three years was a city ward principal at Youngstown, O. He was in charge of grade supervision.

The farm boy and teacher had aspirations to increase the quality of his work in the profession and in 1912 received his bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago, and in 1914, with two additional years of education, received the Master's degree from the University of Wisconsin. Later some graduate work was taken in Chicago. Mr. Cauffield taught a year at Cedar Falls, Ia. While in Wisconsin Mr. Cauffield was elected to the faculty of the State Teachers College of Maryville. That was in 1914.

Behind Mr. Cauffield's training as an instructor in geography and geology is a broad background of thorough study. He had special instruction in his field under educators in Michigan, Wisconsin, and New York. Special attention was given to the study of Niagara Falls considering structure and economic factors. Mr. Cauffield studied the virgin forests of Indiana and Illinois. He made some research in sand dunes and glacial deposits; drainage in northern Indiana; spent a summer analyzing the driftless areas in central Wisconsin. He gave time to the study of the oldest rocks and fossils of the world; he spent a summer in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado, Yellowstone National Park, Glacier National Park, traveling as far north as the Canadian border; he engaged in research in the southwestern part of the United States in the Grand Canyon, the petrified forests of Arizona, and study of the production and economic interests of the California Valley. Mr. Cauffield also did much field work on and around the Great Lakes, and out several miles from the coastline on both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Mr. Cauffield has hopes in the future of crossing the oceans and seeing what is on the other side of the world.

Mr. Cauffield is a member of the Masonic college fraternity, Acaia; is a member of the Masonic lodge, the Men's Forum, an organization of business and professional men of Maryville; Pi Gamma Mu, honorary social science fraternity, and has been identified with Y. M. C. A. work the most of his life. He is an active Sunday school worker and is chairman of the board of the First Christian church.

Alpha Sigma Holds Formal at Country Club

The Spring Formal of the Phi Phi Chapter of the Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority is held Saturday Evening.

Colorful and gay was the spring formal dinner-dance given by members of Phi Phi chapter, Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority, at the Maryville Country Club Saturday night, April 12, from 7 to 12 p. m. Miss Evelyn Evans, president; Miss Nell Martindale, adviser; Miss Karol Oliphant, president for next year; Nolan Bruce, Albert Kuehs, and W. P. Green, in the receiving line, greeted the guests as they entered the clubhouse. The rooms were attractively arranged with a soft lighting effect, complimenting the Alpha Sigma Alpha electric pin.

The sorority colors, red and white, prevailed in the appointments of the three-course dinner. Red carnations and red candles centered the tables. Guests found their places by means of a combined dance program and place card in red and white. Easter favors of miniature chocolate animals were at each plate. The men found, upon opening their red ribboned favors, golf pencils monogrammed with the Greek letters of the sorority.

Yello's seven-piece orchestra occupied a fern-embanked pit in the lounge where dancing was enjoyed. The favor dances were especially clever. They included an affair with noise-making devices; a festive, carnival strip dance; one in which each dancer was given an ornamented egg giving outlet to confetti when cracked; and a sparkler dance.

Those present were: President and Mrs. Uel W. Lamkin, Dean Elnora Winfrey, Charles R. Gardner, Miss Margaret Lindley, Cecil Young, Miss Geraldine Hunt, Erman Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Person, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Whiffen, Mr. and Mrs. Clun Price, Miss Nell Martindale, Albert Kuehs.

New Fraternity Appears on Campus

With the organizing of Beta Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma at the College last week, an honorary fraternity of a different type is being organized on the College campus. Only students who were either valedictorians or salutatorians of their graduating classes in high school are eligible to membership.

The first chapter of the national organization was founded at Kirksville some time ago, by Byron Cosby, who some twenty-five years ago was one of the founders of Pi Kappa Delta.

At the organization meeting for the local chapter held Wednesday evening, April 9, Glenn Duncan was elected president, and Ernest Reid, vice-president. Other officers elected were: Secretary, Mildred Sandison; treasurer, Marvin Shamberger; Mr. Dieterich, faculty sponsor.

Three degrees of membership have been established. Salutatorians will be classed as novices; valedictorians as apprentices; and members who make high records in college, as masters.

Byron Cosby, president of the national organization, Miss Dodson, national secretary, Miss McKee, and Mr. Rosentangle, all of Kirksville, came to Maryville to help with the initiation of members and the organization of the local chapter.

It is expected that a number of other chapters will be organized in colleges throughout the United States within a comparatively short time.

The Beta chapter is founded upon six objectives. They are:

"To encourage scholarship among pupils in the secondary schools by providing suitable recognition of high scholastic attainment when the student graduates from the secondary school.

"To furnish a worthy incentive to the maintenance of high scholarship after matriculation for college work, by providing opportunity of entrance into and advancement within this organization when a definite scholarship record is maintained.

"To counteract influences which are detrimental to scholarship attainment in both secondary school and college.

"To produce a community feeling and public sentiment for exceptional scholarship among ambitious students in the colleges.

"To produce stronger, better equipped and better spirited graduates to serve the communities into which they go.

"To induce college students, members of this organization, to return to their home schools and encourage their friends in the secondary school to attain high scholarship."

Maryville was first to take steps toward organizing upon receipt of a letter from Kirksville on February 27, and several assemblies of honor students have been held since that time.

There are fifty-eight members in the organization. They follow:

Lola Acklin, Graham; Mabel Bridgewater, Hopkins; Ella Cloud, Grant City; Eva Brown, Jameson; Virginia Dodd, Shenandoah, Ia.; Miriam Dysart, Mailland; Everett Evans, Ridgeway; Genevieve Gray, Clearmont; Avis L. Glenn, Martinsville; Violetta Hunter, Grant City; Donald E. Johnson, Pickering; Emily Ellen Jones, Parnell; Thomas R. Lawrence, Maryville; Birdie Le-master, Maryville; Hazel Moore, Worth; Clinton Morris, Rea.

Ida Beth Newlon, Rock Port; Holly Porterfield, Clearmont; Clara May Shartz, Spickard; Marian Gann Vail, Maryville; Wilhelmina Vette, West-boro; Grace Westfall, Maryville; Dorothy Whitmore, Bethany; Mildred Wiles, Maryville; Doris Willson, Shor-dan; Bernadine Yndon, Gentry; Georgia Bello Moorehead, Breckenridge; Lowell Bowen, Bolckow; Josephine Bays, Hopkins; Mildred Cook, Mailland; Herbert R. Dieterich, Maryville.

Glenn Duncan, Excelsior Springs; Irma Geyer, Skidmore; Vera Hayes, Union Star; Ellsworth Henkins, Cowgill; Leroy Nelson, Ludlow; Ernest Reid, Millgrove; Mildred Sandison, Maryville; Marguerite Thompson, Hopkins; Wayne Vencill, Maryville; Bernice Chapman, Maryville; Iilda Heflin, Ravenwood; Marvin C. Shamberger, Maryville; Stephen G. LaMar, Elmo.

Fred Larson, Mercer; Ruth Matlock, Clearmont; Genevieve Miller, Maryville; Wilbur Pettigrew, Maryville; Mary A. Pistole, Pickering; Margaret Quinlan, Maryville; Ernest Stalling, Barnard; Clara Underwood, Hatfield; Rebekah Botkin, Skidmore; Viola Brandt, Clearmont; Fairy Deffenbaugh, Redding, Iowa; Katherine Gray, Skidmore; Crystal M. Holbrook.

Mr. Cook returned Sunday, March 23, from Rochester, Minnesota, where he has been with Mrs. Cook, who has been undergoing treatments there.

The Stroller

The Stroller has just about concluded that he doesn't know his holidays. First the Student Council had a party on April 4 and called it an April Fool's party. Then there are the Y. W. girls who are going to have an Easter breakfast on Thursday. And Clyde Parquhar says that Easter comes on Sunday this year.

President Lamkin was seen coming to school the other morning carrying a doll. Maybe he was advertising "The Doll's House."

Oh, the irony of it. What cruel-hearted, cold-shouldered person ever thought of putting a park bench out by the front drive right where Cap Childers, the night watchman, parks his car?

Maybe the Bears did bite the dust in that windy baseball game with Conception College last Thursday, but that was one time when they could bite the dust and not taste defeat. My, but it was a dusty day! Come again, Conception. You played a good game just the same.

Oh, yes, the Stroller started out to talk about holidays. There is one that he is going to keep straight and that's Mother's Day. The Stroller is going to sit right down and write to his mother and tell her how they went and named April 30 after her and how every mother's son and daughter of us is inviting his or her mother over here that day. Mr. Mehus believes that next to world peace, the most important thing is to have as many mothers at the College, on the day set for Mother's Day, as we had dads here on Dad's Day, last fall.

If you happen to hear a funny buzzing sound and just can't quite make out what it is just ask the Stroller. He has learned that it is coming pretty largely from one of a few sources. The noise is either coming from the new education office where students are buzzing around trying to get teaching jobs for the next year or from Miss Martindale's domain where preparation is going forward rapidly for a bigger and grander May Fete than ever before, or from Mr. H. R. Dieterich's office where he and his forces are making preparation to welcome one thousand to fifteen hundred of Northwest Missouri's high school students to the contests, which will be held at the College next week.

Three Maryville high school students played for Mr. Holdridge's solo class in piano, April 11, before the try-outs for entrance to the spring contests. Helen Gault played "Wedding Day at Troldhaugen" by Grieg; Frank Westfall played "Prelude in G Sharp Minor" by Rachmaninoff; and Doris Wray played "Valse Caprice" by Nowlan. Ben Thompson, Thomas Lawrence and William Alsop also played.

At the meeting April 4, Thomas Lawrence played "The Route" by Godard; Donald Johnson played "In Autumn" by Moskowski; Darlene Scheider played "Etude Broque" by Leschetizky; and William Alsop played "Marche Mignonne" by Poldini.

Jones—Commencement.
Wells—Student Publications.
Murphy—Thrift, through Education.
Evans and Hallman—Home Rooms.
Millard—Organization and Administration.

Mary Ellen Dildine is doing practice work in library economy. Mary Kidwell is doing the typing work for Mr. Wells.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Elects Its Officers

The Phi Phi chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha has recently elected its officers for the coming year. Those elected are as follows: President, Karol Olliphant; vice-president, Irene Smith; undergraduate secretary, Isabel McDaniel; graduate secretary, Martha Pfeiffer; treasurer, Betty Hickernell; Registrar, Virginia Myers; editor, Clara May Shartzor; chaplain, Katherine Gray.

The national convention of the sorority will be held June 30 to July 3, at Swampscott, Massachusetts. Miss Olliphant, the president, and Miss Martindale, the advisor for the Phi Phi chapter, are planning to attend.

"A Doll's House" Is Newman Club Play

"The Doll's House," a three-act play by Henrik Ibsen, will be presented by the Dramatics Club under the auspices of the Newman Club, on the evening of April 22, in the College auditorium. The play, presenting the question, "Should Women Be Free?" is perhaps his best known play, which the Norwegian author has written.

The following cast of characters has been chosen from the Dramatics Club, and is practicing every evening in order to have the play ready for presentation on the twenty-second:

Nora—Elizabeth Price.
Torvald Helmer—Fred Barbee.
Krogstad—Paris Phipps.
Mrs. Lindon—Cleola Dawson.
Anna Marie—Leila Carroll.
Ellen—Arrie Ann Freeland.

The student production staff is as follows:

Director, Clinton Morris; technical director, Arrie Ann Freeland; stage manager, Wilbur Pettigrow; property, Mary Ethel Oliver; lighting, Ernest Landen; publicity, Vivian Kimball; wardrobe, Lucile Mitchell; make-up, Betty Sealeman; tickets, Helen Elliott.

Mr. Miller, chairman of the speech department, is supervising the student production staff. Misses Katherine and Margaret Franken are sponsors of the Newman Club, to which the proceeds of the play are to be given.

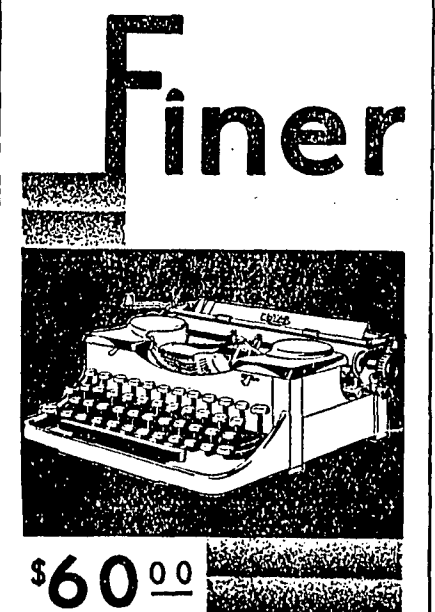

Following is one critic's comment on "The Doll's House" and of its author, Henrik Ibsen:

"In 'The Doll's House' (1879) we have the first emphatic statement of Ibsen's individualistic creed. It is not a feminist play. Ibsen was at the moment pre-occupied with the struggle between society and the individual, and he chose a woman as his protagonist because he knew that, on the whole, women were more likely to take a personal view of life than men. There are two dramas in the play—one consists in Nora's discovery that she has lived for years with a strange man; but this depends on the more essential drama that for Torvald a crime against society is more important than a sin against love.

Iba Attends Meeting

Coach Iba attended the annual meeting of the rules committee of the National Association of basketball coaches in session at Chicago Friday and Saturday, April 4 and 5. Among the questions discussed at the meeting were those of "stalling" and its effect on basketball, and the advisability of introducing basketball as one of the Olympic contests.

The juniors of the Maryville High School won the annual inter-class meet on the College field Friday afternoon, March 21.

College Team Wins Opening Baseball Game

Conception College loses to Bears by a 11 to 9 score on the local diamond, Thursday, April 10.

Four home runs, sensational catches, errors galore, and everything else that goes to make up a baseball game featured the season's opener on the local diamond last Thursday when the Bears trounced the Conception College team by an 11 to 9 score. The game, which was played in a near-hurricane, thrilled the small crowd, though things did not work as smoothly as they might have had conditions been better.

The Maryville team, the first all-College team in existence here for several years, showed plenty of power and drive in this initial contest, and gave evidence of a successful season. Every player on the team, with two exceptions, hit safely, while Fischer, Barnes, and Agenstein reached first for two or more times through earned blows.

Scoring opened in the second inning when four Bears crossed the plate on an error, a single by Finley, a three-bagger by Taylor, and a hard socked homer by Agenstein. This lead was approached in the fourth frame when Conception scored three runs on two hits and two errors, but was not overtaken until the seventh, when five all was reached. In the seventh and eighth innings both, Maryville scored three runs, which clinched the game, although Conception scored twice in the eighth and again twice in the ninth.

Homerun credit goes to Agenstein and Lisle of the Bears, and Tobin and Irlbeck for the visitors.

Merle Taylor started on the mound for Maryville with Finley behind the bat. Taylor held the game in control all the time he was in the box, and when he was replaced in the ninth, Mitchell, relief hurler, struck out the last three men to face him.

Wagner and Lynch were pitchers for Conception, and held the Bears to the same number of hits as their teammates counted, though Maryville blows were for more bases, and at more opportune times.

The Bears, on the first tour of the season, will play at Kirksville and Westminster Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Tennis Tournament Is Now in Progress

Something rather unusual in tournaments is in progress at the gymnasium. The women's tennis matches, under the direction of Miss Jack, are taking the form of a tennis ladder tournament. In this type of contest, a girl may challenge the girl directly above her name, or the second name above. If the challenger wins the match, her name is put in the space formerly occupied by the name of the defeated girl. If the challenger loses, the names remain the same as before the challenge. Before challenging the same girl again, a girl must play another match.

The girls who are signed up for competition in the tournament are Alice Nelson, Ruth Jensen, Clara Mae Shartzor, Emerald Riley, Juanita Marsh, Lorraine Warner, Vashti Conn, Margaret Quinlan, R. Doll Chick, Elizabeth Edwards, Permonio Davis, DeVere Abernold, Cleola Dawson, Helena Goslee, Lois Tripp, and Lois Carroll.

Miss Jack announces that a women's tennis match has been arranged with Tarkio College, to be held here May 3. A return match is to be held at Tarkio, May 19.

Alice Nelson, Clara May Shartzor, Juanita Marsh, and Elizabeth Edwards are now at the top of the ladder, and rank in the order named.

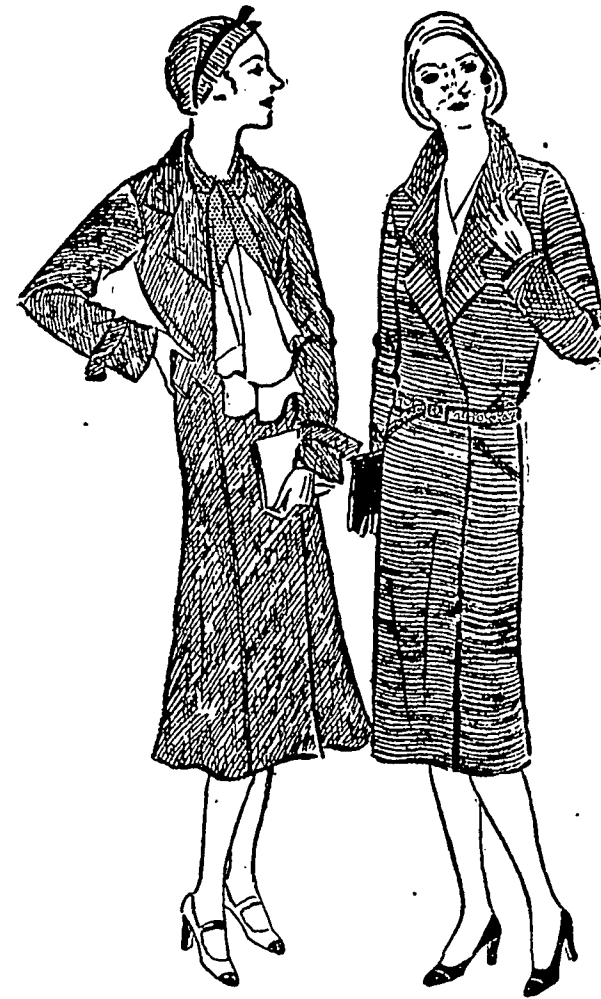

W. A. A. Elects Officers

Lois Carroll of Grant City has been elected to the presidency of the Women's Athletic Association of the College for the year, 1930-'31. Voting was done by the members on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the last week in March.

Other officers elected for the coming year are: Vice-president, Emerald Riley; secretary-treasurer, Rachel Englund; tennis sports manager, Elizabeth Edwards.
